Introduction

In this engaging reflexive pronouns game, students race to complete sentences with reflexive pronouns.

Procedure

Divide the students into groups of three.

One student is the 'reader' and is given a set of sentence cards.

The reader shuffles the cards and places them face down in a pile on the desk.

The other two students are 'players' and are given a set of reflexive pronoun cards each.

The players shuffle their cards and spread them out face up on the desk in front of them.

If you have extra students, have some groups of four and give the extra student a set of pronoun cards.

The reader turns over the top card from the pile and reads the sentence aloud to the players using the word 'blank' for the missing reflexive pronoun.

The players listen and then race to grab the correct pronoun card to complete the sentence.

The first player to grab the correct reflexive pronoun card from their set and give it to the reader, saying the pronoun at the same time wins and keeps the two cards.

The correct answer is shown for the reader on the sentence card.

If neither player gives the right answer, the sentence card is placed at the bottom of the pile to be used again later in the game.

This process continues until there are no more sentence cards left.

The player with the most cards at the end of the game is the winner.

Afterwards, students can repeat the game with a different student reading the sentence cards.
